

Bill of Rights

Consumers of marriage and family therapy services offered by marriage and family therapists licensed by the State of North Dakota have the right:

1. - to expect that a therapist has met the minimal qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
2. - to examine public records maintained by the North Dakota Marriage and Family Therapy Licensure Board which contain the credentials of a therapist;
3. - to obtain a copy of the code of ethics from the North Dakota Marriage and Family Therapy Licensure Board,
- 4 - to report complaints to the Board of Marriage and Family Therapy;
5. - to be informed of the cost of professional service before receiving services;
6. - to privacy as defined by rule and law;
7. - to be free from being the subject of discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, or other unlawful category while receiving services;
8. - to have access to their records as provided in the North Dakota Administrative Title 111-02-05.06 subsection k; and
9. - to be free from exploitation for the benefit or advantage of a therapist.
